We Are a Rainbow: A Free Download

Thanks so much for showing interest in my freebie Pip the Pip book download. This book provides a fun and gentle way to teach students about loving their unique features and being proud of those. The download includes a Pip the Book and follow-up activity. This packet also comes with an assortment of activities to teach additional color words. This book can be used for your whole-group instruction, character education lesson, or as you see fit within your classroom. If you have additional questions about this freebie packet you can reach out to me directly at littlemindsatworkLLC@gmail.com

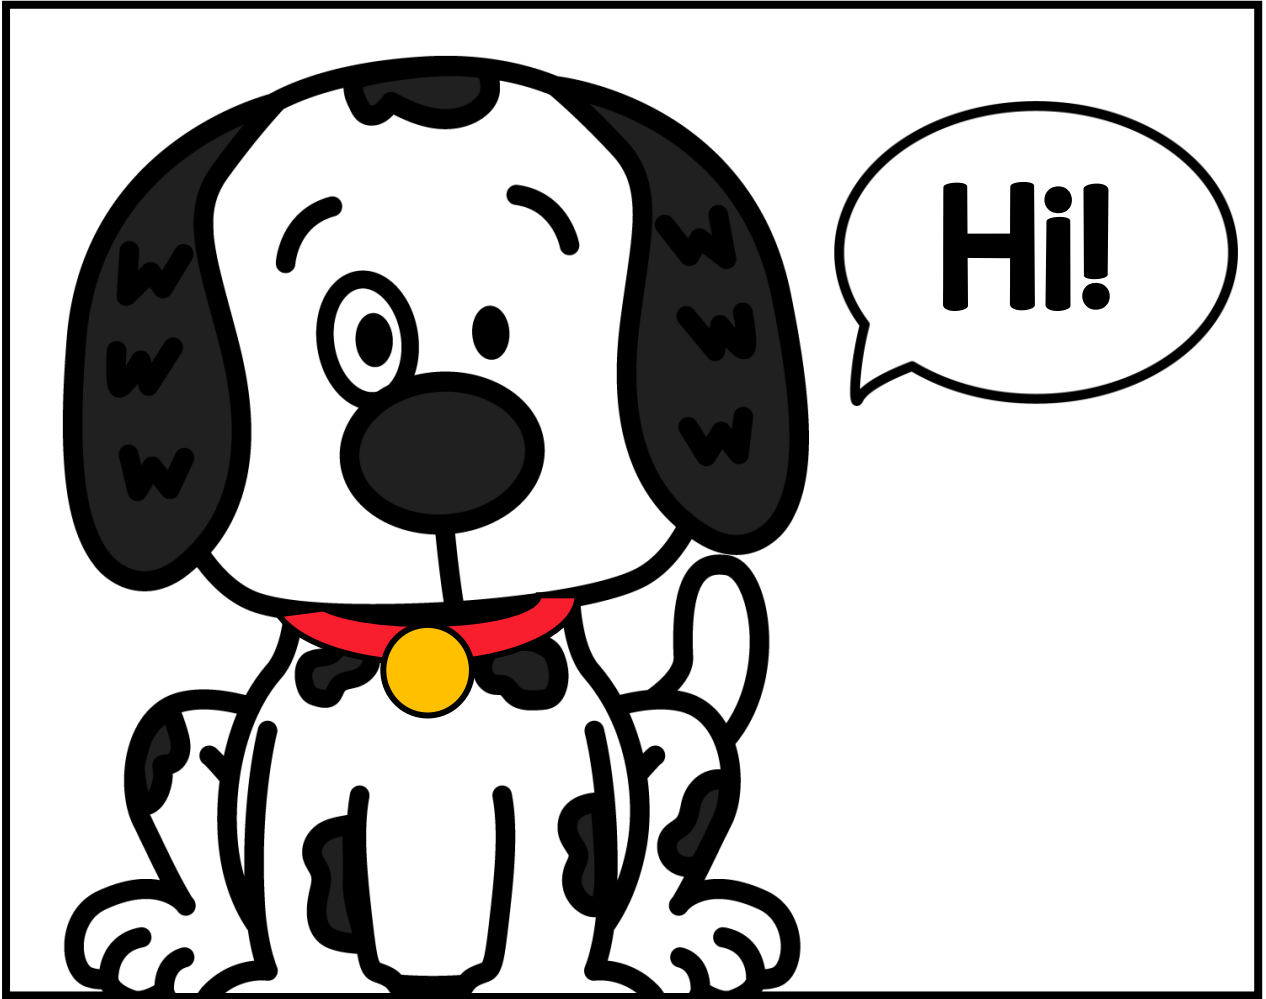

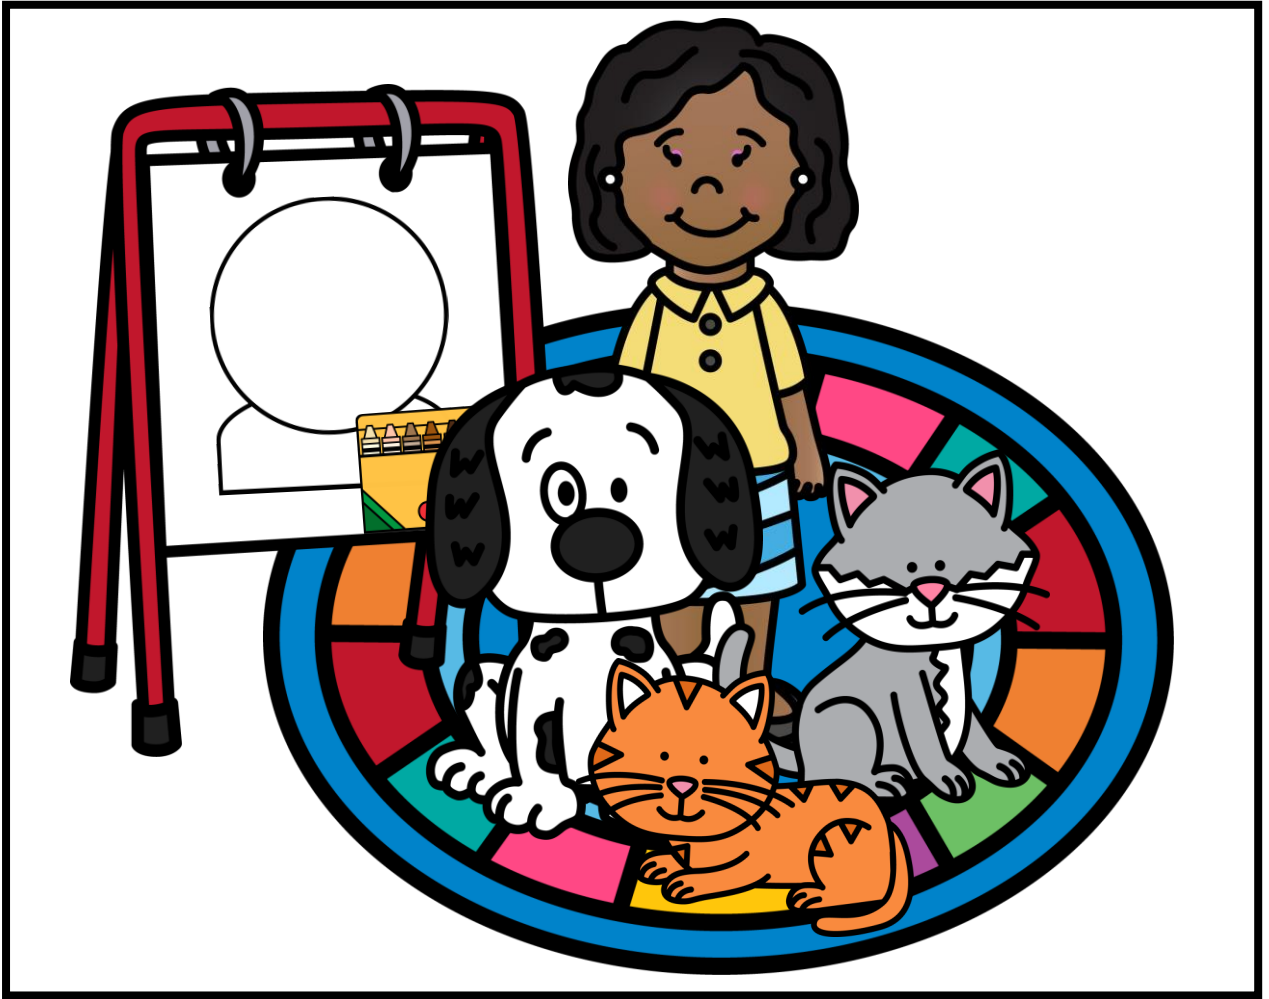

We Are a Rainbow

Adventures With Pip the Pup

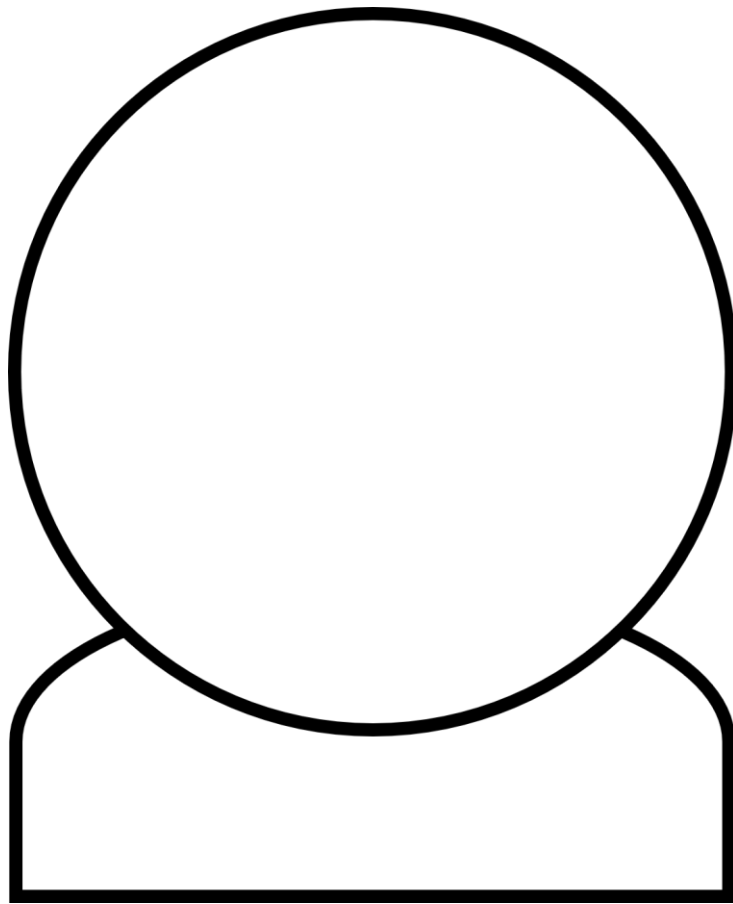

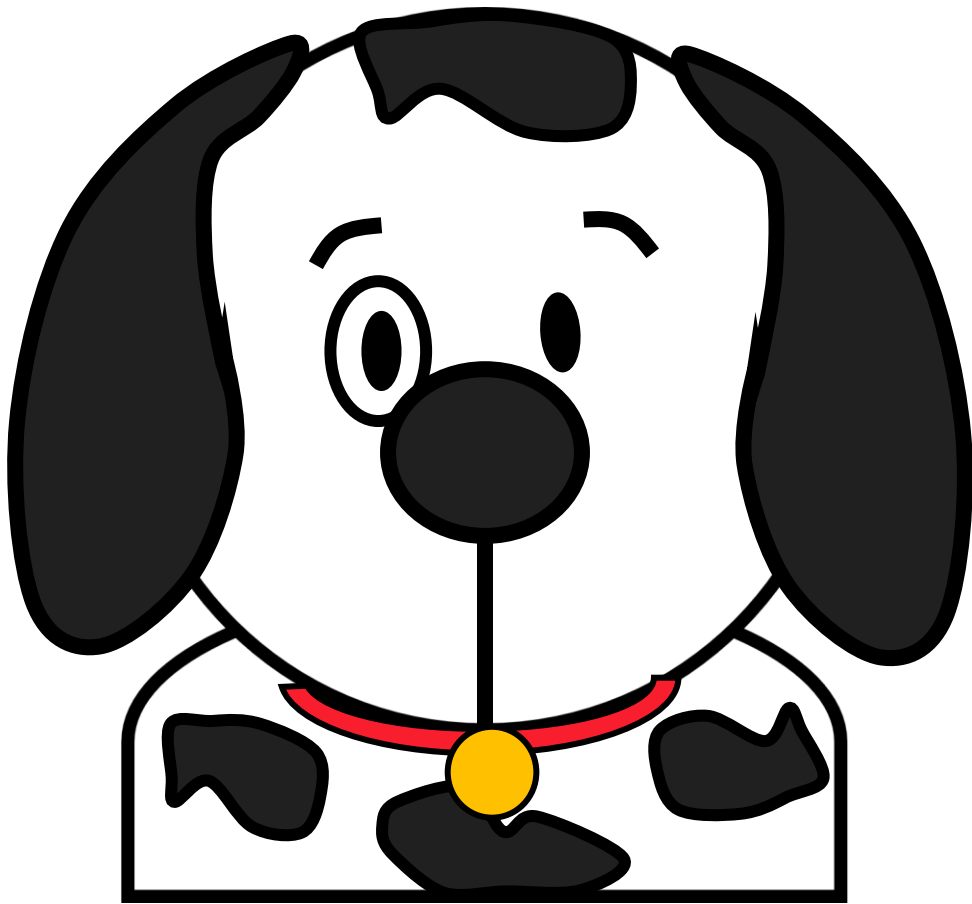

Hi! I'm Pip the Pup, and I am happy you are here. Today I want to share with you all about self portraits.

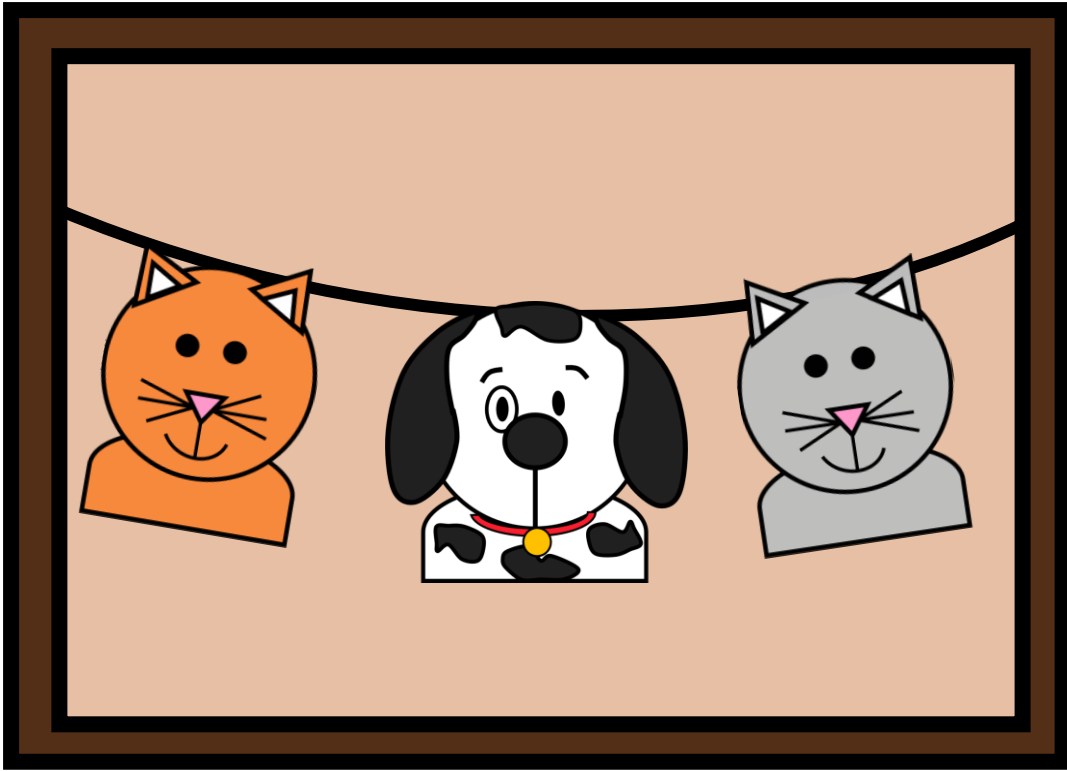

What is a portrait? A portrait is a picture of yourself. Will your portrait be the same as mine? No, you're right!

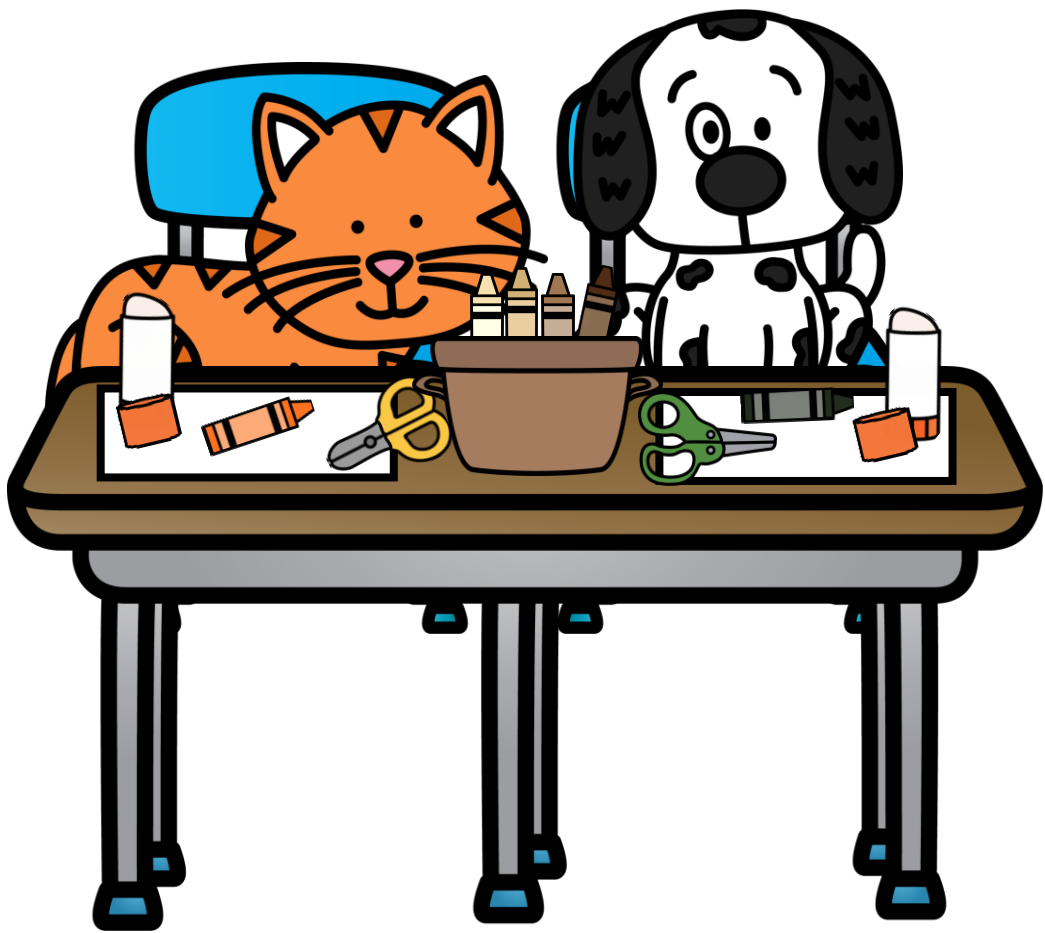

When we make a portrait, we start with a big circle for our head. A portrait is usually just our head.

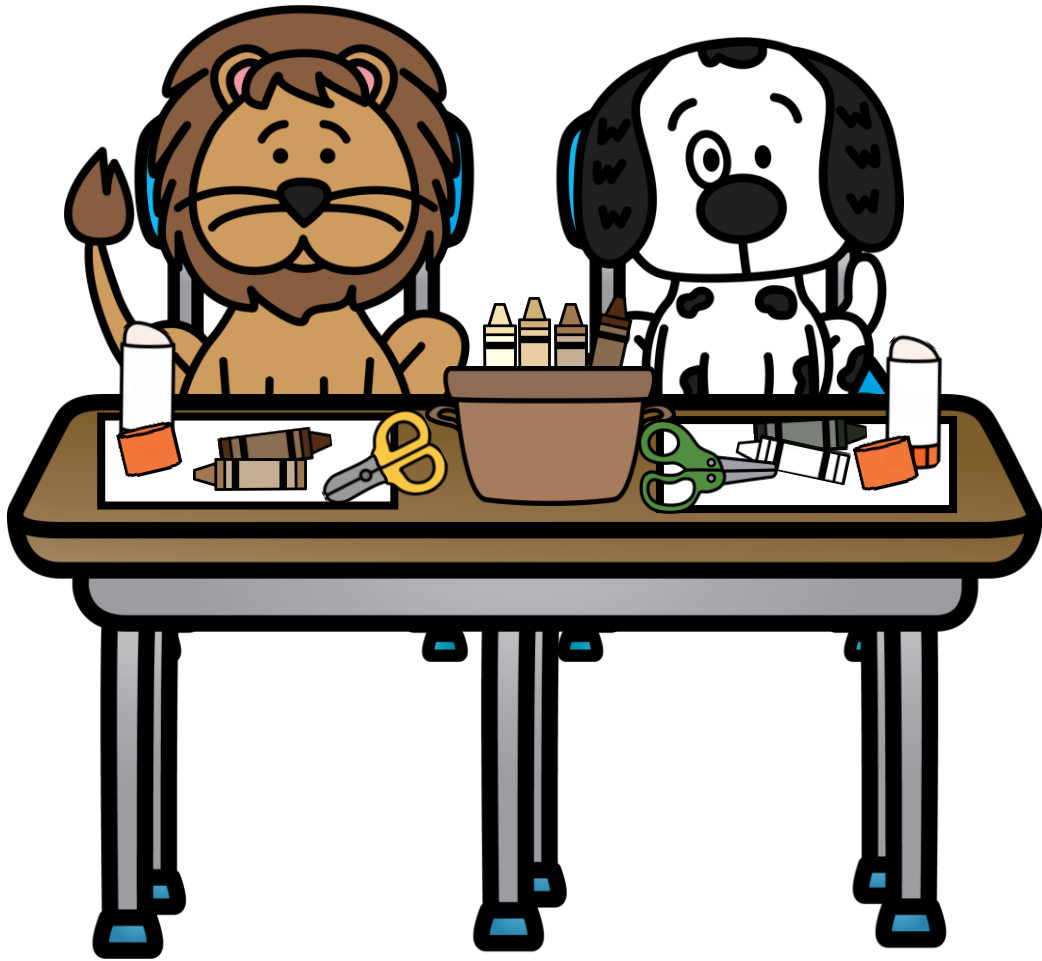

We are all unique and special so each of our portraits will look different. My portrait will have spots.

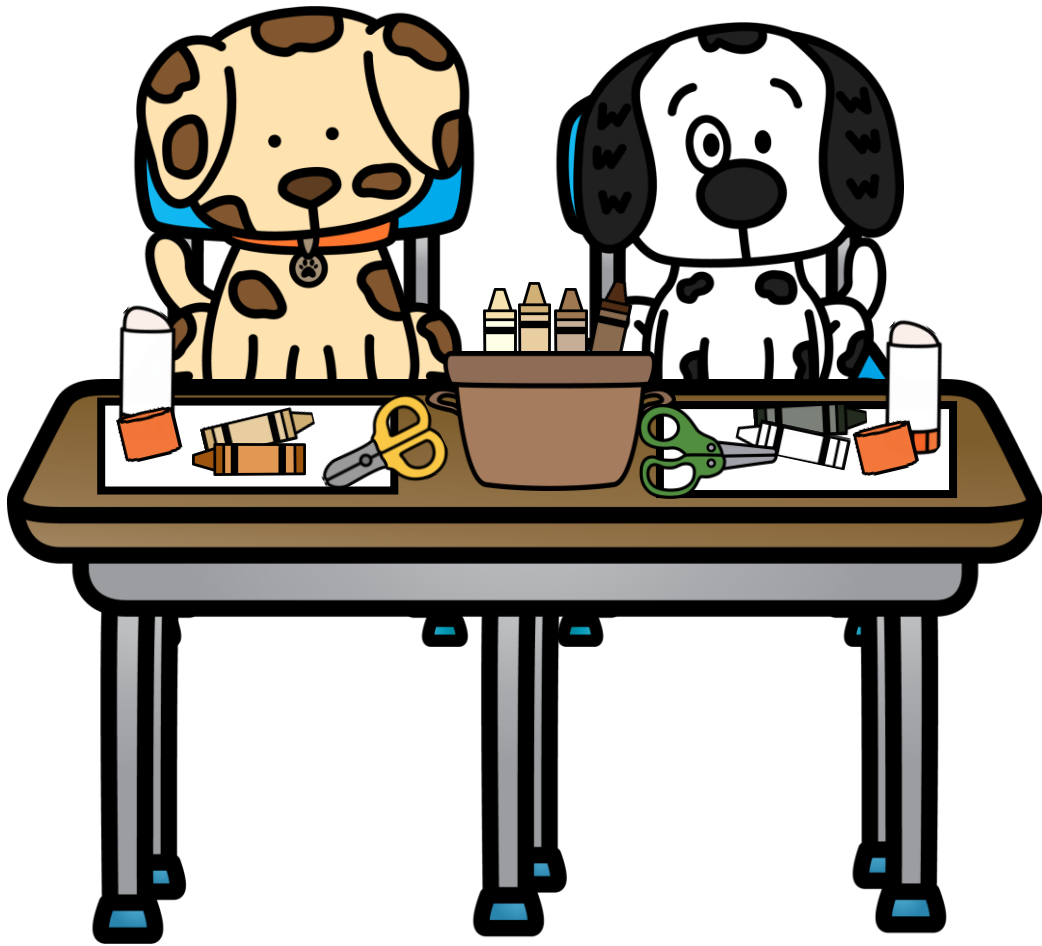

When we look at our portraits, we will notice that we are all different shades. We make a rainbow.

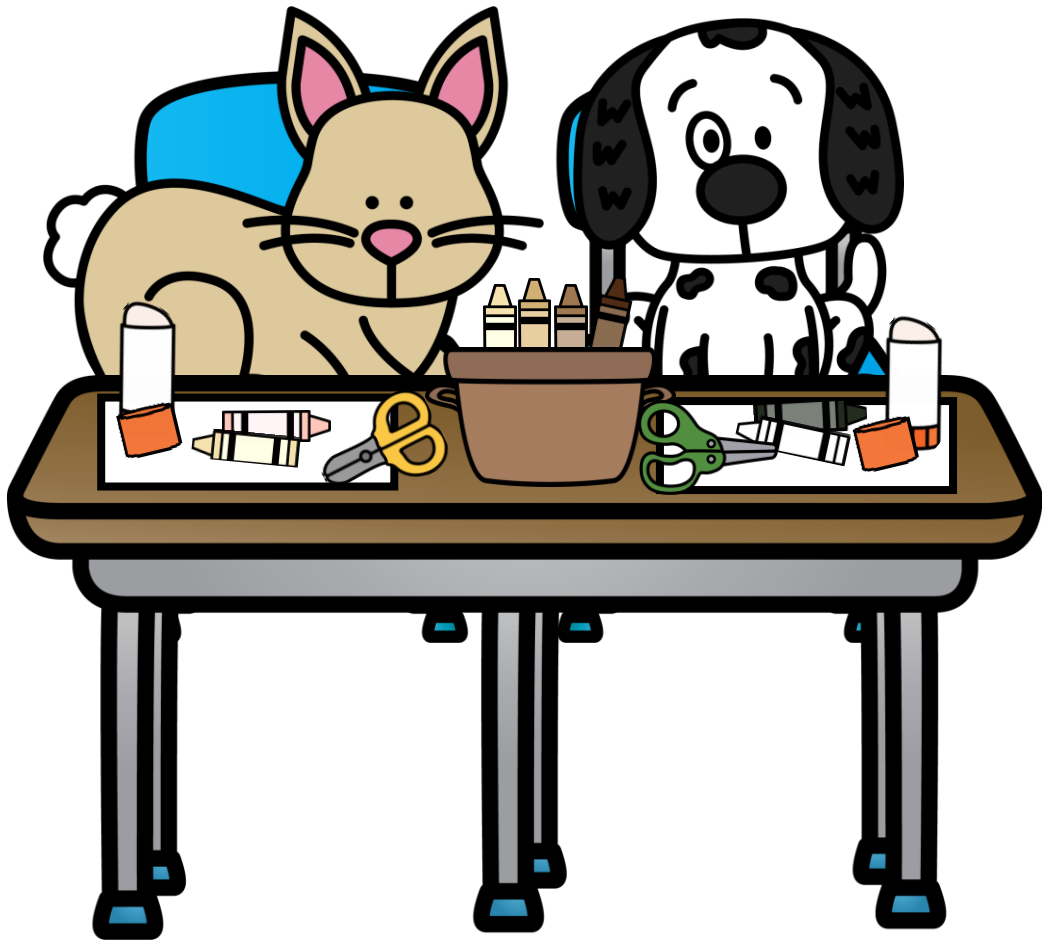

Choose a crayon that makes you feel special for the portrait. If you can't find your special crayon, just ask for help.

Levi grabbed his two crayons. He calls them
cocoa and espresso.
They are shades of brown.

Max grabbed his two crayons. He calls them tan and copper. They are shades of brown, too.

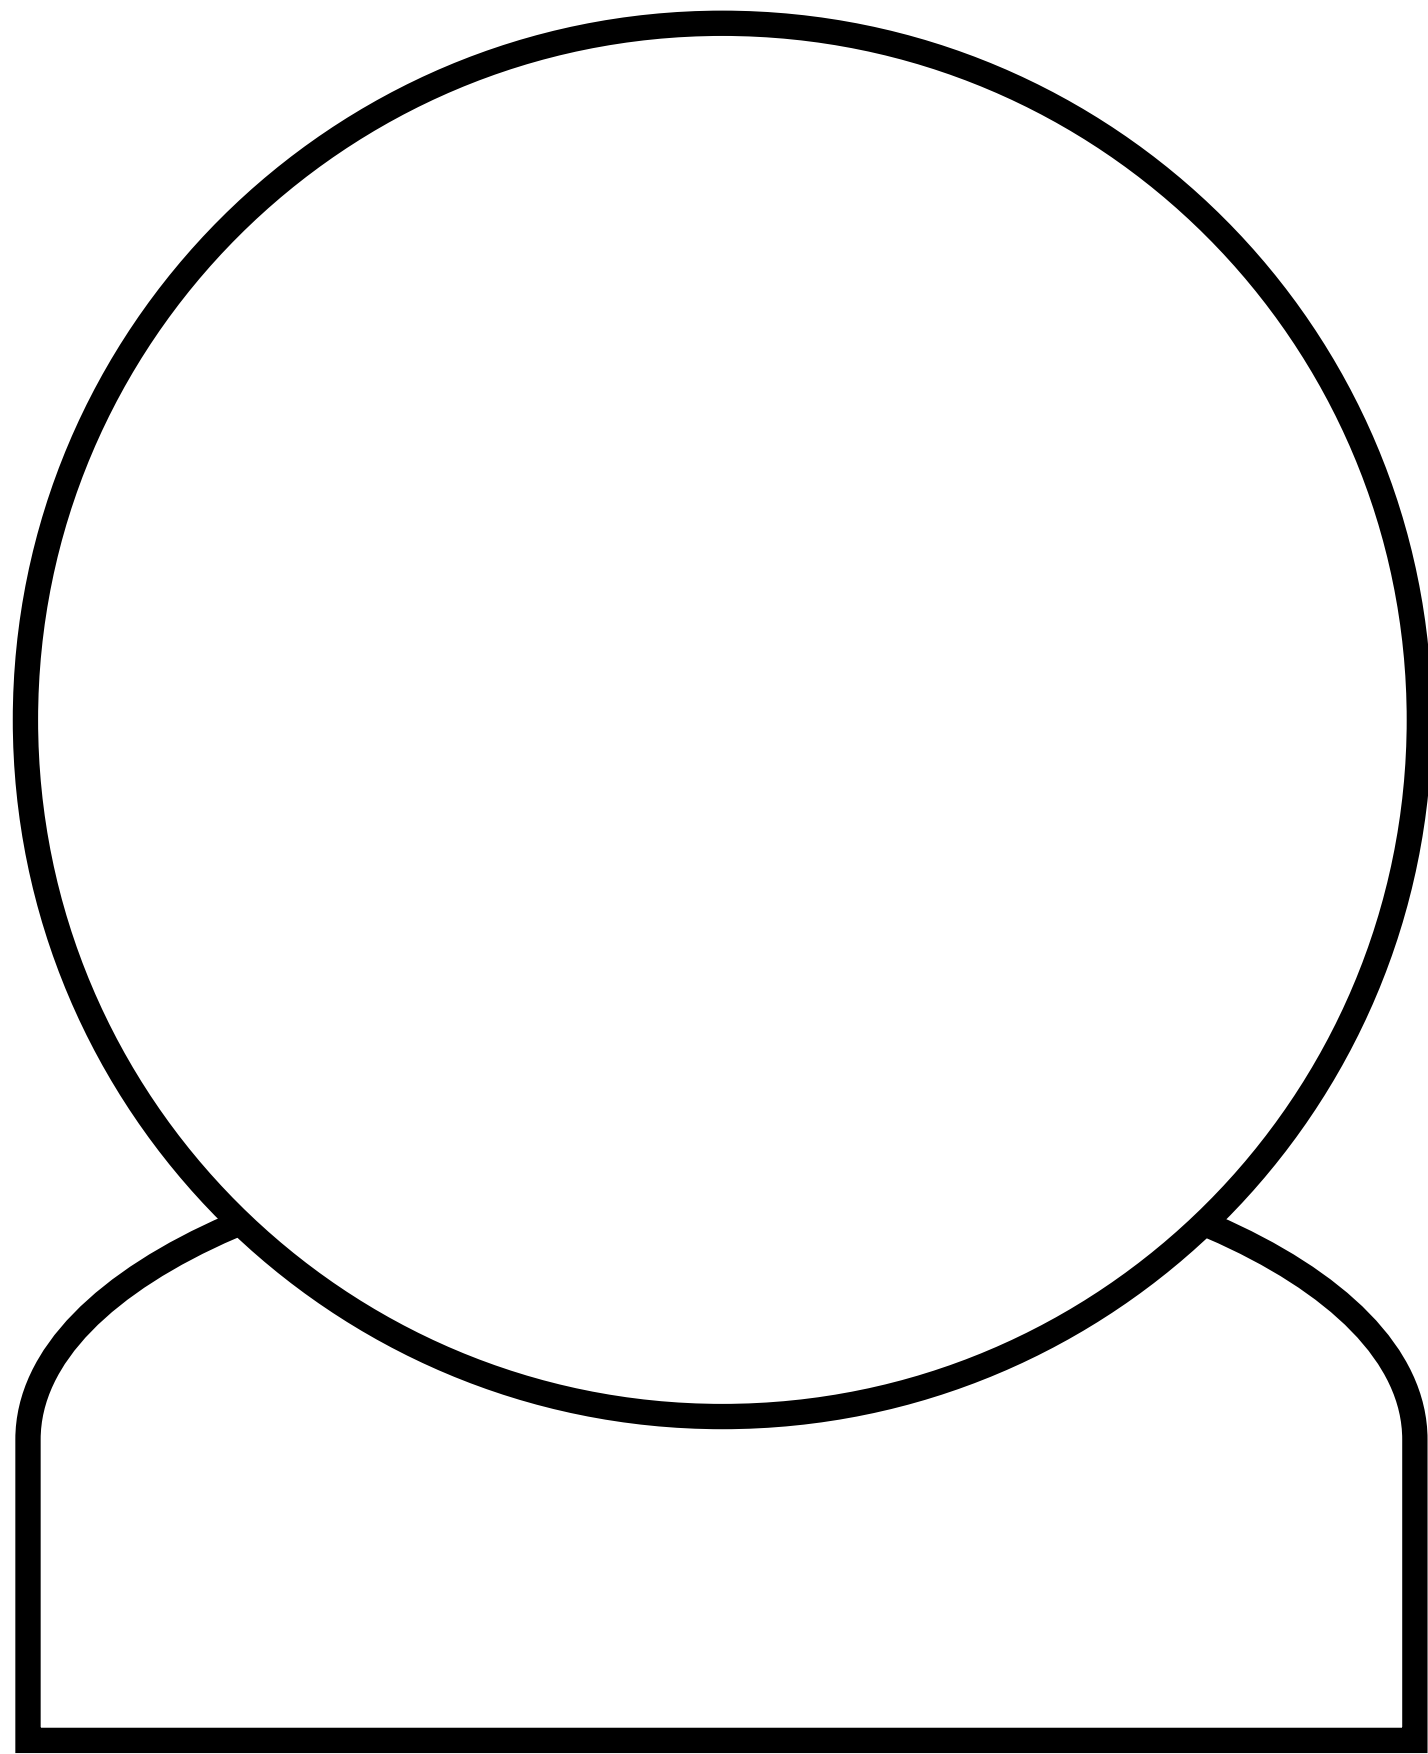

Trixie grabbed her two crayons. She calls them ivory and peach. They are her special crayons.

What special crayons would be in your self portrait?

Self Portrait Craft: Print the self portrait template. If printing on white paper, provide students with the choice of multicultural crayons/markers. The template can also be printed on multicultural construction paper.
