Tara West, from Little Minds at Work, has crafted the "In-a-Click Lessons" program, a thorough collection of printables designed to explore handwriting skills in a phonics-based approach. This program comprises 10 captivating printables, each integrating a handwriting strokes skill focus and incorporating Science of Reading aligned phonics skills. These printable sheets can seamlessly fit into your whole-group handwriting lessons, teacher-led small groups, or be provided as a home connection option. Pre-writing stroke work is necessary to build a strong foundation for students.
