Guided Writing Prompts

Thanks so much for downloading my Guided Writing Prompts packet! This packet is designed to offer a way for students to practice writing stories in a guided and differentiated format. The students will have the opportunity to work on multiple writing genres within this packet.

This packet includes narrative, opinion, and informational writing genre prompts. These writing prompts can be used as part of your whole-group writing block and within the independent writing center as well. View the four levels of differentiation below.

Level One:

Level One: allows students an opportunity to write a completely independent story. The students will write the independent story with the assistance of the picture prompt and the word bank words.

Level Two:

Level Two: allows students an opportunity to write a guided story. The students will write the guided story with the assistance of the picture prompt, word bank words, and traceable sentence prompts.

Level Three:

Level Three: allows students an opportunity to write guided sentences. The students will trace each sentence and write in the missing word bank words for each sentence to make their own story.

Level Four:

Level Four: allows students an opportunity to write guided sentences. The students will trace each sentence to form their own story.
